

As I write the newsletter this morning, I don't know which of two events crept up on me faster: my little boy Hudson's 2nd Birthday, or the fall of 2021. Somehow it's already October. Despite the warm days projected ahead we know autumn is coming whether we're ready for the change or not. The warm weather looks to continue over the next couple of weeks, and the mornings and evenings in the fall are hard to beat. Football season is in full swing and there's just something about fall that most of us find nostalgic. New MAC programs begin very soon, and we are preparing for upcoming events and youth sports. We still have lots of great weather ahead of us, and we encourage everyone to take advantage of what might just be the best month to get out and enjoy the outside amenities here at the MAC.

*Thank you,
Aaron Greenwell
Executive Director*

Pool

The MAC pool officially closed on Labor Day. I would like to thank Kara Bewley, Hannah Joyner, Casey Dawson, and our lifeguards for a wonderful summer. We are looking at making some nice updates to pool areas before the 2022 season that include the addition of some new patio furniture, new decking around the pool, and possibly some new recreation amenities.

WE ARE PROJECTING A 2022 SEASON THAT WE BELIEVE WILL BETTER FIT THE NEEDS OF OUR MEMBERS AND STAFF. WE WILL STILL OPEN ON MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND. THE CHANGES WILL INCLUDE OPENING THE POOL ON NINE MONDAYS THROUGHOUT THE SEASON, OFFERING MORE FAMILY NIGHT SWIM OPPORTUNITIES, AND THEN CLOSING FOR THE SEASON SHORTLY AFTER SCHOOL STARTS BACK. WE FEEL THAT MONDAYS IN JUNE AND JULY WILL SEE A GOOD LEVEL OF TRAFFIC. EVERY YEAR UTILIZATION GOES DOWN IMMENSELY AFTER SCHOOL STARTS BACK, AND IT SEEMS TO GET INCREASINGLY MORE DIFFICULT TO LOCATE LIFEGUARDS AFTER HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE CLASSES START BACK.

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS OR CONCERNS RELATED TO THIS CHANGE PLEASE EMAIL AARON GREENWELL @ Aaron.greenwell@meadeactivitycenter.org
